

RODNEY ST. WELLBEING CLINIC

Terms & Conditions

General

Rodney Street Wellbeing Clinic has provided this information for the public about the wholesomeness and usefulness of techniques in facilitating healthy lifestyle changes and/or alterations in personal habits for vocational self-improvement. This document is to instruct the general public about the nature of alternative therapies.

The client is always responsible for consulting their General Practitioner, to ensure their physical and mental well-being. If in doubt, they should contact their GP or Doctor before embarking on any complementary treatment. Our practices are not intended to diagnose, treat, or act as a substitute for professional medical advice. It does not replace the need for services by medical professionals and as such any changes to your current treatment should be discussed with your GP.

Our techniques are an adjunctive/complementary alternative for self-healing, self-help, and behavioural modification. Results are ultimately achieved through the client's own personal efforts at applying these techniques over time for which each client must accept full responsibility.

Rodney Street Wellbeing Clinic makes no expressed or implied guarantees of results, in so far as human behaviour cannot be predicted.

Clients under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian.

Any information provided by clients and customers of Rodney Street Wellbeing Clinic is strictly confidential.

All testimonials contained herein are true, factual and in the client's own words.

Payment

The initial booking of a course of treatment requires a deposit be made to cover the full value of one single session. This deposit will be held and used as payment for your final session on successful completion of a course of treatment or will be used to cover our losses in the event that we do not receive notification to cancel or reschedule an appointment greater than 48 hours before it is due. Each session must be paid for at the time of appointment or prior if preferred.
